Six tramps, arrested near Four-mile run, some of whom were supposed to be implicated in the attempted robbery of Letter-carrier Padgett, were dismissed, no one appearing to identify them.

Laura Robinson, colored, charged with keeping an unlicensed dog, was fined $1 and made to leave $1.50 for the license.

Mary J. Jenkins, colored, charged with maintaining a nuisance on her premises, was fined $2 and made to pay 75 cents for the abatement of the nuisance.

Joseph Dudley, colored, charged with assaulting Rebecca (quill), was fined $5.

A huckster charged with conducting business without a license, was released upon guaranteeing to settle by Thursday next.

A youth charged with assault had his case continued until to-night.

NIGHT REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool until about 1 o'clock, when it became cloudy. Two prisoners and two lodgers were at the station house.

BELIEVED NEW KENT WAS THE HUB.—There is an amusing story told of a man living in New Kent, who thought New Kent was the greatest place on earth. A gentleman was in Richmond talking to a friend in a hotel office, telling of his trip abroad and where he had been. The New Kent fellow listened as long as he could when suddenly he sprang to his feet and approached the talkers, and said "I say, sir, have you ever been, been to New Kent, sir? Well, well, sir, then you have never been nowhere, sir." Li Hung Chang places great stress on visiting Grant's tomb, but Virginians will tell him unless he has been to Lee's and Jackson's tombs he has "been nowhere, sir."

A QUICK REPLY.—Every evening when the weather permits quite a number of residents of the First ward congregate on Windmill Hill to discuss politics, &c., and invariably there is an argument between two well-known ward politicians—one a democrat and the other a republican. A few evenings ago the democrat was telling his hearers of the good times which would follow the success of the democratic party and the free coinage of silver, when the republican interrupted him by saying that when McKinley was elected prosperity would return and all the idle men would be put to work. "Then," quickly replied the democrat, "I'll be damned if you don't leave the party."

RAILROAD CHANGES.—As stated yesterday Second Vice President and Manager W. H. Baldwin, jr., of the Southern Railway, has resigned from that road and has been elected to the presidency of the Long Island Railroad Company, to succeed the late Austin Corbin.

Mr. Baldwin will assume the duties of his new position on October 1. Mr. Baldwin's reason for retiring is that he regards his new office as a better business position, and because it will give him an opportunity of living at home instead of on the road. Mr. Baldwin will be the youngest railroad president in the country, as he has barely reached his thirty-third year.

JEWISH NEW YEAR.—With the setting of the sun next Monday will begin a new year in the Hebrew calendar, and the members of that faith, both orthodox and reformed, will gather in their synagogues to observe the day with music, sermons and special ceremonies.

In the synagogue in this city Rev. M. Zieleson, of the Hebrew Union College, of Cincinnati, will conduct the services.

The issuing of permits to children to attend the public schools will be commenced on Monday.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. R. F. Lawler and daughter, of Norfolk, who have been visiting relatives in this city, returned home yesterday, accompanied by Miss Susie Webster.

The engagement of Miss Rosa Bendheim to Mr. S. J. Kaufmann is announced. At home Sunday evening September 6 from 8 to 11 p. m.

Mrs. Blackford, the venerable mother of Mr. L. M. Blackford, is seriously ill at her home at the Episcopal High School.

Mr. R. F. Knox, jr., has returned from Atlantic City.

Mrs. Attaway M. Lewis, of Virginia, (who has many friends in this city), a resident at the Louise Home, in Washington, fell while walking down Seventeenth street yesterday and suffered a lacerated wound over the eye. She was taken to Emergency Hospital for treatment.

Mr. Peyton Dearborn, of Amherst, has passed the examination at Annapolis, and will enter the Naval Academy. He is a nephew of Mr. Charles Dearborn, of this city.

C. R. Pollard has accepted a position on a bridge carpenter camp on the Washington & Ohio R. R. and left Wednesday for Alexandria.—Strasburg News.

Miss Nettie Frances, of Alexandria, who has been the guest of Miss Lucy Bryan, returned home yesterday.—Standard News.

Colonel J. T. Beckham, a well known citizen of Alexandria and a member of Western State Hospital Board of Directors, is registered at the Eakleton.—Standard News.

Mrs. Berryman Green has gone to Leesburg to spend a few weeks.

Miss Ruth Murray is visiting friends in Leesburg.

Rev. Harry F. Klonan, rector of Polish church, is enjoying his vacation at the home of his parents in Warrenton.

Mr. John Lolow, advertising agent of Walter L. Main's circus, which will exhibit here on the 25th, was in the city to-day. Mr. Lolow has many friends in this city and throughout the South who will be glad to learn that the notice of his death published in several papers last winter was incorrect.

The Young People's Union of the Second Presbyterian Church at their meeting last Thursday night made partial arrangements for the reception to be tendered Rev. T. H. Rice on his return from Europe.

A DISAPPOINTMENT.—The greater portion of the community made arrangements to get a glance at Li Hung Chang this evening, it having been announced that he would pass through this city on an electric train at half-past 3 o'clock. Many left for Mount Vernon on earlier trains in order to be there when the celestial arrived. Between twelve and one o'clock a telephone message was received from Washington announcing that, by reason of the rain, the vicerey had abandoned the proposed trip to Mount Vernon. This change of programme, however, was not generally known, and many people thronged King and Royal streets in the afternoon confident they were to get a look at the distinguished Chinaman, but though train followed train at hourly intervals Li, to the disappointment of the anxious watchers, was not to be seen.

SHOOTING IN THE ROAD.—Complaint is made of the promiscuous shooting which is practiced on and near the southern approach to Hunting creek bridge. People who live in Fairfax county and transact business in this city say their horses are scared by the fusillade and that much of the shooting is done on the approach to the bridge. There is a penalty prescribed for discharging firearms on or near a public road, and the authorities have been called upon to execute the law. Measures will be taken at once to stop the practice.

PLAYING POLICEMAN.—A day or two ago a war of words occurred between Rebecca Quill, a loquacious colored woman, and one of her neighbors, when a colored individual named Joseph Dudley approached and told the disputants he was a policeman and that he would arrest them both. The Quill woman protested, but he proceeded to make his words good by taking hold of her and making her his prisoner. She resisted and he struck her several times. Dudley was arrested and fined $5 this morning. He had no money and was put on the chain gang.

ANOTHER HOLDUP.—Early last night while a lady, whose name could not be ascertained, was on Cameron street, between St. Asaph and Pitt, she was accosted by a strange man who grasped a basket she had on her arm and attempted to take it from her. The basket contained several packages of articles she had purchased, and she held so tightly to it that the would-be thief was compelled to relax his hold and escape. Officer Sherwood soon learned of the affair and scoured the neighborhood, but was unable to find the man.

PRINCE WILLIAM NOVES.—Mrs. Lucy Davis, who has been visiting Mr. Haywood Davis and family at Occoquan, has returned to her home in Alexandria.

Mrs. Elizabeth Fetzler, wife of Mr. A. B. Fetzler, of Sudley Springs, died yesterday in her 72d year.

Mr. John M. Johnson, a prominent member of the Alexandria bar, was at the Goodwin House, Manassas, en route to his home from his farm near Wellington, this county, on Monday.—Manassas Journal.

ALMOST A FIRE.—Last night while an entertainment was in progress at Odd Fellows' Hall, Falls Church, for the benefit of the Falls Church band, some one accidentally struck one of the large lamps, knocking it down and spilling the burning oil all over the hall, causing a stampede of the audience. After every one was out of the building some of the cooler heads returned and used the carpet and rugs, and in a short while had the fire out, with only slight damage to the new hall.

CONFERENCE.—The quarterly conference of the M. E. Church South was held last night at the Village Chapel, Presiding Elder Smithson in the chair. Messrs. J. E. Alexander, A. A. Warfield, E. C. Graham and J. F. Pollard were chosen delegates to the district conference which meets at Remington on Tuesday. The usual routine business was transacted.

FIRE COMPANY MEETING.—The regular monthly meeting of the Relief Hook and Ladder Company was held last night with Vice President Wm. H. Melchior in the chair. The new by-laws which were recently printed were received. The company decided to have another drill one night next week. The usual routine business was transacted.

TURNED LOOSE.—The police yesterday went some distance out of the city and arrested six tramps and brought them to the station house. It was thought that probably some of them were the parties who attempted to rob Mail-carrier Padgett. The examination was fixed for seven o'clock last night, but Mr. Padgett did not appear and the Mayor this morning directed the officers to conduct the men to the places where they were found.

TEMPERANCE ADDRESS.—Mr. Edwin Higgins, of Baltimore, a prominent lawyer and prohibitionist, will make a public address at Good Templars' Hall on Monday night next. Mr. Higgins is known throughout the country as one peculiarly gifted in the presentation of the principles of the prohibition party, and it is hoped the friends of temperance and the general public will be present to hear him.

HEAVY RAINS.—There were several heavy showers of rain to-day, rendering outdoor operations exceedingly uncomfortable. There were some washouts in the sewers now being constructed on King, Pitt and Prince streets, but no material damage was done.

The Bryan, Sewall and Rixey Club of this city are making arrangements for holding weekly meetings in this city during the campaign. One night next week, probably Tuesday, Mr. John M. Johnson is expected to speak.

As a sequel to the recent difficulty between Prince Augustin Turbide and his valet, Thomas J. Carney, the latter in Washington yesterday filed a suit against the Prince, claiming that the sum of $445 is due him for services.

A difficulty occurred between two young men in a bakery at an early hour this morning, during which one of the parties was roughly handled. A warrant was sworn out for the arrest of the party in fault and he was fined $5.

Every man, woman or child who knows anything about circuses will be delighted to know that the Walter L. Main enormous railroad shows in their magnificence and exalted grandeur will surely exhibit here on Friday, the 25th instant.

It is reported that the four railroad employees who on Thursday night carried Li Hung Chang in his chair from the depot in Washington to his carriage after the policemen had been ordered not to do so, have been presented with $50 each by Earl Li.

Mr. L. M. Blackford, principal of the Episcopal High School, near this city, who has been some weeks abroad, reached home last night. He sailed from Southampton on the steamer St. Paul last Saturday, reaching New York yesterday afternoon.
